II. Basis for Jurisdiction

Federal Courts are courts of limited jurisdiction (limited power). Generally, only two types of cases can be heard in Federal Court: cases involving a federal question and cases involving diversity of citizenship of the parties. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, a case arising under the United States Constitution or federal laws or treaties is a federal question case. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, a case in which a citizen of one state sues a citizen of another state or nation and the amount at stake is more than $75,000 is a diversity of citizenship case. In a diversity of citizenship case, no defendant may be a citizen of the same state as any plaintiff.

What is the basis for Federal Court jurisdiction? (check all that apply)

BERHANU JACOB

923 OAK ST

W SACRAMENTO, CA 95605

BD #: BD1642815

Dear BERHANU JACOB:

The U.S. Department of Education (the Department) has completed its review of your application under the Borrower Defense regulations for discharge of your Federal student loans taken out in connection with your enrollment at Corinthian Colleges, Inc. (Everest Institute, Everest College, Everest University, Heald College, and WyoTech). Your application has been denied, which means that your Federal student loans will not be discharged.

Why was my application denied?

The Department reviewed your application specifically regarding the campus(es) you attended, the program(s) in which you enrolled, and the date(s) that you enrolled. If available, the Department also reviewed data from the National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) and school-provided data regarding your program(s) and enrollment date(s), in addition to the enrollment information on any official school documents that you provided with your application.

Based on that review, it is the Department's determination that you did not enroll in a covered program during one of the eligible time periods listed at the links below. Either (a) the initial enrollment date(s) or program(s) you provided in your application fell outside the eligibility period for the program(s) at your campus(es), or (b) you provided an eligible initial enrollment date for the program(s) at your campus(es), but both NSLDS data and the school's data indicated that you enrolled outside the eligibility period.

Your borrower defense application did not describe any other specific misconduct related to your loan or your education that would be actionable under State law. Therefore, your borrower defense application for discharge of your Federal Direct Loan(s) is denied.

Applicable Law

A borrower may be eligible for a discharge (forgiveness) of one or more Direct Loans if the borrower's school engaged in acts or omissions that would give rise to a cause of action against the school under applicable State law. See § 455(h) of the Higher Education Act, 20 U.S.C. § 1087e(h), and 34 C.F.R. § 685.206(c)(1) (the Borrower Defense regulation). The Department will recognize a borrower's defense to repayment of a loan only if the cause of action directly relates to the loan or to the school's provision of educational services for which the loan was provided. U.S. Department of Education, Notice of Interpretation, 60 Fed. Reg. 37,769 (Jul. 21, 1995).

The Department has found that at various times between 2010 and 2014, schools operated by Corinthian Colleges, Inc. published misleading job placement rates for many of their programs of study. The Department determined that students at these schools who first enrolled in certain programs during covered time periods have borrower defense claims and are eligible for a discharge of all or part of their loans under the Department's Borrower Defense regulation. Lists of covered programs and time periods are available online at these links: <https://studentaid.ed.gov/sa/sites/default/files/ev-wy-findings.pdf> and <https://studentaid.ed.gov/sa/sites/default/files/heald-findings.pdf>.

What if I do not agree with this decision?

This is the Department's final decision on all allegations raised to date in connection with your Federal student loans for your attendance at a school(s) owned or operated by Corinthian Colleges, Inc. If you disagree with this decision, you may file a lawsuit in U.S. District Court.

Can I apply for borrower defense if I have additional claims?

If you wish to file a new application regarding acts or omissions by the school other than those described in the application (BD # BD1642815) that you believe support a valid borrower defense claim, please refer to the information and application available on the Department's website on borrower defense at StudentAid.ed.gov/borrower-defense. In that application, you should explain in the relevant section(s) the basis for your new borrower defense claim and submit all supporting evidence.

What should I do now?

Because the Department has denied your borrower defense claim, you are responsible for repayment of your loans. If your loans were placed in forbearance as a result of your borrower defense application, those loans will be removed from forbearance by your servicer.

If your loans are in default and are currently in stopped collections, your loans will be removed from stopped collections. Failure to begin or resume repayment could result in collection activity such as administrative wage garnishment, offset of State and Federal payments you may be owed, and litigation.

If your application was pending for more than one year and your applicable loans are owned by the Department, the Department will take steps to reduce the amount of interest that has accrued on your loan(s). Your servicer will provide additional information in the coming months regarding the specific amount of interest adjusted.

If you have questions about the status of your loans or questions about repayment options, please contact your servicer(s) or the Default Resolution Group (if your loan is in default) at 1-800-621-3115. If you do not know the name of your loan servicer, you can find that information at nslds.ed.gov. For further information on Federal Student Loan repayment and discharge, please visit: <https://studentaid.ed.gov/sa/repay-loans/forgiveness-cancellation>.

Sincerely,

Borrower Defense Unit
